Shades of Pastel

Pastel colors are considered springtime colors because of their delicate, subdued shades. Each color has meaning, and, when combined, celebrate the rebirth of the spring – and Easter – season.

- Yellow is joy, happiness. Yellow is the sun shining on a clear, Spring day.
- Pink is a fresh beginning, a healthy new start, and playfulness.
- Blue is the color of the sky and of water. It suggests peace and harmony. It's a clear blue sky and the rain that brings forth the new spring growth.
- Lavender suggests something unique or extremely special, but without the deeper mystery of purple.

Fresh & Flavorful

- Citrus flavors continue to romance consumers with their bright, clean flavor profiles.
- Spring has traditionally featured cream cheese as an ingredient: with its rich taste and creamy mouthfeel, it's a happy conclusion to the Lenten fast.
