A Long Love Affair...

- According to lore, Emperor Claudius II decreed that men could not marry if they were soldiers, as he believed single men made better warriors. Bishop Valentine defied this, performing secret wedding ceremonies. He was jailed and eventually executed on Feb. 14. He fell in love with the jailor's daughter signing letters, "From your Valentine."
- In the Middle Ages, young men and women drew names from a bowl to see who would be their Valentine. They would wear this name pinned onto their sleeves for one week for everyone to see. This was the origin of the expression "to wear your heart on your sleeve."
- In 1537, England's King Henry VII officially declared Feb. 14 the holiday of St. Valentine's Day.
